The men bowlers have never competed in special match events between the East and West, but the women have the tournament at the Harlem Circle aliers has winter between teams of New York and Chicago women having excited a great deal of attention. To get the best teams, Mr. Samuels, of the Harlem Circle alleys, has inaugurated two tournaments in which the best men and women teams in Greater New York and New Jersey have entered. The women are now engaged in their tournament, and that for men, which was delayed by election matters, will start next week. From these tournament results the teams will be selected.

The eastern remen championship games will start Nov. S. Twelve of the best teams about New York have entered, paying the 625 entrance fee which, with the $200 added by Mr. Samuels, will go into the priva. This will be among the most important series of games rolled in the east this season. Mr. Samuels will match the winning five a finetany team in America for the champonship.

There will be another American championship se ries between Eastern and Western women's teams from among the bowlers in the Eastern Women's tournament now in progress and the Chicago winners of the series of games will be arrunged, the women bowling in New York and alsoinChicago.

of the Spartans, tock on the Hartford champion at the Brocklyn alleys. Five sames t were rolled, of which Fease wen three, the score being close and the sames watched by a big crowd. Riddell's high score was 255 and Pease's 247.

Following this contest Pease was invited by Riddell to roll a match with Mrs. Riddell, who, with a party of women vistars, had joined the men on the alleys. Pease consented, but it proved to be his undoing, for Mrs. Riddell, former woman chambion of the West, and one of the best among women bowiers in this city, won two of the three games. She even tied the high score made by her husband.
